Q: What is better than a great fitting T made from high quality materials?

A: One that also benefits many causes from cancer, to autism, to orphans in the Congo.

Clothes with a conscience that's us StinkyKids Brand (www.stinkykids.com)

Now a bit about me and StinkyKids...

My name is Britt Menzies and I am the creator of StinkyKids (www.stinkykids.com). From the simple request of my daughter to paint her as a ballerina, StinkyKids is now a fun and whimsical way to teach our little stinkers core values and to live by the StinkyKids motto 'Always Be A Leader of Good'.

StinkyKids first started from one simple painting, leading to many custom paintings to family and friends, to wearable art and now to a booming business and brand. Not bad for a mom who could doodle!!!!

From tots to tweens to the adult child, little stinker's of all ages can come and play with the StinkyKids at www.stinkykids.com, as the StinkyKids are a form of 'Positive Parenting'. These 10 lovable and diverse characters inspire kids to enjoy the innocence of childhood, but at the end of the day, make right choices and give back to the community. And best of all, they were inspired by real people in my life and kids can pretend to be their favorite StinkyKid character (refreshing to see real kids as cartoons and not talking animals or vegetables.)

At www.stinkykids.com, tots to tweens and their parents can write to the characters, they can send in their own art work to post on the website, they can print coloring pages of each of the StinkyKids characters and they can Meet each character and learn about their Leader of Good quality.

All of our little stinkers will have fun with these lovable characters in a 'Positive Parenting' kind of way.

We also have a shop at www.stinkykids.com where parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, and so on can purchase tee shirts with their favorite StinkyKids characters, made in the USA, high quality, comes with a matching trading card and book mark and we donate 10% towards the fight against cancer!!!

More about making the world a better place....

StinkyKids isn't trying to only sell t-shirts, we are trying to spread a positive message: "Always be a Leader of Good."

StinkyKids' message is our story, and the t-shirts are our vehicle through which we spread that message. Here is why:

Before we were incorporated, we knew 10% of our proceeds were going to benefit a Washington, DC-area nonprofit, Books, Bears and Bonnets, which supports children and adults fighting cancer. (in honor of my aunt who died from uterine cancer)

Unlike most small (and large companies for that matter), StinkyKids didn't wait to turn a profit before giving back. It's part of who we are, "always being a leader of good."

Since our inception two years ago, StinkyKids has made (product) donations to: Orphaned girls/boys in the Congo; Ronald McDonald House; Autism Speaks and many other important causes. StinkyKids also donates at least 10% of its sales to the venues which we sell our tee ..pre-schools, local charity events, camps, etc. We also now have special edition tees which we donate 40% to the organizations that are in line with our mission. (see Special Edition tees in the on line shop at www.stinkykids.com for more information).

StinkyKids is a small company doing big things because we believe that we should, "Always be a Leader of Good." And, even though we're not quite operating in the black, StinkyKids continues to find ways to make a positive impact locally, nationally and globally.
